

Maloy Ministry Moments

January 2026

Last November, I had the opportunity to visit a region near the conflict in Gaza. Through funding from Unto, our courageous Palestinian staff in this area work to relieve suffering and share the hope of Christ.

During my visit, I assisted with a distribution at a Palestinian refugee camp. These "camps" are essentially ghettos where families live in dilapidated, sparsely furnished buildings. Our local staff work in partnership with a local church and a woman named Salwa*, a "person of peace" who identifies the most vulnerable families. Salwa, who began helping Christians after receiving aid herself during a difficult time, works closely with the pastor's wife, Nina*. Please pray that the Lord reveals the truth to Salwa as she continues to bless others.

A typical distribution involves providing several weeks of food, building relationships, and praying with families. If a spiritual interest is expressed during follow-up visits, the team shares the Gospel.

While there, I witnessed a powerful example of this strategy at work. At one home we entered, a young woman was visibly excited to serve us. At a later home visit to an elderly couple, she reappeared to serve us tea again. As it turns out, they had helped raise her, and she wanted to honor them by hosting us on their behalf. As we left the encampment, Nina excitedly shared a text she had just received: the young woman had asked the team to return and tell her more about their faith in Christ. This wonderful and rare response reminded me of 2 Corinthians 2:14-16, which speaks of God spreading the "fragrance of the knowledge of him everywhere" through us.

Please pray for our staff in this area, that the Lord would provide for them and keep them safe as they courageously work among the Palestinian people in their community.
