

Maloy Ministry Moments

October 2025

Somedays, I'm reminded of what a privilege it is to resource those laboring faithfully on the front lines (of both spiritual & physical warfare). Madiha* is one such woman who, in a war-torn part of the Middle East which is constantly in the news, risks much to introduce women from the majority religion to Jesus. Unto sent her team the finances to provide badly needed food so that the Gospel can rush in & heal hearts, lives, and nations. The following account is in her own words:

"Amal* is a woman I met a few months ago while distributing food packages through the funds sent by Unto. She is a divorced mother of four, living & working with her family in [a war affected area], where she faces struggles & frightening occurrences daily. Yet, she has a deep curiosity for truth & religion.

I've had several conversations with Amal about my faith in Christ as she has recently started attending small groups I host for women dealing with trauma. She often tries to find common ground between Islam & Christianity which led us to discuss more challenging topics like Christ being the Son of God, God in the flesh, the Trinity, the crucifixion, etc. During our last meeting, when I delivered a food package, we had a long discussion. At the end of our conversation, she promised to read the Bible, which she had received a few weeks earlier, to compare the texts & ask us questions.

Amal expressed that what she was hearing was both challenging & frightening, but she also conveyed a strong desire to seek the truth. I haven't heard from her since then, but I continue to pray for her, hoping the Holy Spirit will touch her heart & open her eyes."

Please join with me & Madiha in praying that God would give Amal the courage to believe in Christ. Thank you for your prayers & financial partnership allowing me to coordinate projects like these meal packages in some of the toughest places on earth. *Names changed to protect their identities.

Top: Madiha (leftmost) has many follow up opportunities to share the Good News, especially since she has shown herself to be a good neighbor to women in crisis. Bottom: Amal's (checkmarks) participation in a group for women healing from trauma, & receipt of supplemental meals for her family, led to private opportunities for Madiha to share the Gospel!

Please pray...

...for Dan's assessment trip to Madiha's location, for his safety and a chance to connect with Amal.

...for Amal's curiosity to grow insatiable, leading to her salvation in Christ.

...pray also for Dan's second stop in Central Asia to see the spiritual impact of our humanitarian projects there. He'll be gone November 9th-19th.

...for Shannon as she manages our busy household in Dan's absence, and for protection from spiritual warfare which often surfaces during his trips.
